

The Rockits (Rockit Choir) Membership

Terms & Conditions

By registering to become a member of The Rockits you are accepting the terms and conditions in this Membership Agreement

1. This membership agreement starts once you have completed and submitted your online registration
2. By becoming a member of The Rockits you consent to receiving communications relating to your membership
3. The Rockits musical arrangements are owned by Maxine Wilson and must not be used or replicated in any way without her prior consent.
4. During your membership you are permitted to use all online resources for your own personal use.
5. Termly fees for The Rockits are payable in advance, via our online facility. If you cannot attend a session, no refunds will be given.
6. If rehearsals are cancelled, due to unforeseen circumstances, illness or act of God, we will endeavor to provide alternative rehearsal time over the next two terms. No refunds will be given.
7. Membership costs may vary each year and members will be notified of any changes in advance.
8. By joining, it is agreed that official photographic, video and sound recordings may be made of all members and used for fundraising or promotional material.
9. Any photographic, video and sound recordings taken by The Rockits members, or their families/friends, is for their private use only and must not be shared on social media without our permission.
10. We reserve the right to terminate your membership if it is felt to be in the best interests of the choir.

Attending Rehearsals

1. When registering, members should choose their primary location for their regular rehearsal sessions. However, the termly fee entitles members to attend unlimited Rockits rehearsals at any venue, subject to availability (not including Choral sessions).
2. Members are responsible for their own belongings during rehearsal sessions. The Rockits cannot be held responsible for any damage to property or persons during this time, or during external events.

Rockits Choral

Rockits Choral is our sister performance choir. Membership is by invitation from our musical director. Additional fees apply.

All Choral singers are, first and foremost, Rockit Choir members and, as such, are bound by the same terms and conditions above.
